EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

The following change is necessary to correct a mere informality with the claim language and in no way affects the scope of the claimed invention.

In Claim 22, the term --first-- has been added before "notch" (line 4).

In Claim 29, the term --first-- has been added before "notch" (line 4); the phrase of "a first" (line 8) has been changed to --the first--, the phrase of "a second" (line 9) has been changed to --the second--, and "a cable" (line 9) has been changed to --the cable--.

Reasons for Allowance

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art does not teach all of the limitations of the claimed invention including mounting a tray including a longitudinal groove that is defined between first and second longitudinally-extending edges of the tray, the first edge comprising a first notch and the second edge comprising a second notch, and selectively routing the cable through the second notch, the cable extending through the first notch in a first direction that is substantially orthogonal to a second direction along which the cable extends through the second notch.

Art Unit: 3729

The examiner further notes that the applicant(s) specification states that a cable can extend through anyone of the notches 22, 23 on the first edge and on the second edge (disclosure, p. 7) and because the first edge 19 (in Fig. 1) is in a first direction that is substantially orthogonal to the second edge 21 in a second direction, routing of the cable in the first direction through the first notch of the first edge would be substantially orthogonal to the second direction through the second notch of the second edge.

Accordingly, Claims 22, 24-29, 31-34 are allowed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

3. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to A. Dexter Tugbang whose telephone number is 571-272-4570.
